

Dr Caroline Thompson is the Director of Formation for Mercy Partners. She has worked extensively in secondary education and adult faith formation. Caroline completed her doctoral studies in faith leadership in 2011 and has lectured widely on this topic in leadership programs.

As Director of Formation, Caroline occupies an executive position created to provide leadership and strategic direction for formation opportunities offered by Mercy Partners. Caroline coordinates and facilitates delivery of the Mercy Partners Leadership Formation Program for Board members, Executive, senior staff and others interested in being part of the mission of Mercy Partners.